Warsaw, December 26.

Yesterday the King, attended by the Great Chancellour of the Crown, the Grand Treasurer, and other Ministers, went and heard Mass sung to Musick at St. John's Church. The Pope's Nuncio has sent a considerable Sum of Money to the Gouvernour of Camineck, to be employed in fortifying that Place. General Adoriatowski, whom the King has made Treasurer of Lithuania, is preparing to go thither to take Possession of his Office, notwithstanding the Intrigues of several of the Nobility who purpose to disturb him.

Paris, Jan. 16. It is reported, that the designed Promotion of Mareschals of France, Lieutenant-Generals, and other Military Officers, will be deferred till the King's Majority is declared; the Persons who are to be made Dukes and Peers, are said to be the Prince of Talmont, the Marqueses de Levi, de Biron, and de la Valliere; those design'd for the Mareschal's Staff, are the Marquess d'Algre, and the Counts de Medavi, and du Bourg, all seven being Lieutenants-General in the King's Army. The Duke Regent is using fresh Endeavours to effect a Reconciliation between the Prince and Princess of Conti, and 'tis likely his Royal Highness will succeed in them very soon. It is rumour'd, that M. Fagon, Councillour of Finances, has been twice discovered to have gone secretly to visit the Chancellour Dagueau in his present Retirement at De Fresne; by which, 'tis conjectur'd he runs a Risque of losing his Employment, as likewise do two other Ministers; it has also been rumour'd, that a Match is in Negotiation for Prince Don Emmanuel of Portugal, and the Princess of Charolois, or Princess of Clermont. Pursuant to the Arrêt of the Coucil of State for disposing of the Estates of the taxed Mississippians, here has been sold some Days past the Seat d'Ivry, situated within a League of this Cry; the fine Hôtel de Pomponne, situated in the Place des Victoires; that of Auch, in Montorgueil-Street; and another, situated near Versailles, belonging to M. Chamont, a noted Mississippi; as likewise several great Seats and Houses, belonging to Messieurs le Blanc, Grand Auditor; Kolly, St. Elme, and others. --- An Arrêt has been lately published for opening Commerce with those Provinces which were formerly infected by the Contagion, permitting the Proprietors or Carriers of Goods from those Parts, to be no longer obliged to seal their Bales or Packs, in order to their being aired a certain Number of Days, as was lately enjoyn'd: The Arrêt is as follows, viz.

IT having been signified to the King in his Council, that most of the Precautions which his Majesty had caused to be prescribed formerly by several Arrêts, and among others, those of the 14th of September 1720; 22d of February; 24th of June; 30th and 24th of August; 11th, 14th, and 30th of September last Year, and 3d of November past, in order to prevent the Communication of the Contagion, then afflicting some Parts of Provence and Languedoc, are become not only useless, since the Recovery of Health in those Provinces, and that all kinds of Disinfection and Cleansing have been performed there with the greatest Exactness, but may create also exceeding Prejudice to Trade by the Restraint therein enjoyned, if proper Measures be not taken to prevent it: Report being heard from M. Dodun, Councillour in Ordinary of the Royal Council, and Council of Regency, Comptroller General of Finances. His Majesty sitting in Council, and by Advice of the Duke of Orleans Regent, has ordered, and does hereby Order, that reckoning from the Day of the Publication of this Arrêt, all Merchandise and other Effects which shall be sent from Provinces and Places where Lines have been established, may hereafter be freely carried and conveyed into all the Cities and Places either of the said Provinces or others of this Kingdom, without obliging the Owners or Carriers to put their Seals of Lead or others upon any the said Bales or Packs containing the said Merchandise or Effects, as has been heretofore enjoyned by the Arrêt of the 24th of June, 10th of August, and 14th of September 1721, and by that of the 3d of November of the present Year, or to produce Certificates from Consuls or Offices of Health, from doing which, his Majesty does hereby likewise Dispence them: Requiring, that the Commerce and Communication, whether of Persons or Goods, shall be entirely free as before the issuing the said Arrêts, even that of the 14th of September 1720, and all others since granted upon Occasion of the Contagion. His Majesty nevertheless requires, that in order to remove all Cause of Apprehension or Disquiet with respect to Merchandise going out of Marseilles, the same Precautions must still be observed that are set forth in the Ordinance of M. Baily de Langeron, his Majesty's Gouvernour in the said City. And concerning the City and Comtat of Avignon, which are not under the Obedience of his Majesty, notwithstanding he has received Information that the Disinfection there has been very exactly performed, yet, to take away all Cause of Fear as to that Particular, has ordered that the Lines and Quarantains established by the Command of M. de Jofcaud shall still subsist, with the Precautions already prescribed, with respect to Persons and Goods, going from Avignon and its Comtat, unless the Inhabitants of the said Territory shall proceed to a new Airing of their Effects, in which Case its Commerce shall be admitted freely into all the Provinces and Cities of this Kingdom. His Majesty enjoyns all his Intendants and Commissioners in the respective Provinces and Generalities of the Kingdom, to see each, according to his Particular Duty, to the Execution of this present Arrêt; that the same be read, published, and affixed in all Places where it shall be requisite. Done in the King's Council of State, his Majesty therein present, held at Versailles the 29th of December 1722.

Signed Phelypeaux.
